

Instructions and steps for entering question paper discrepancy through UMS

1. The online question paper discrepancy can be entered within 72 hours after the conduct of scheduled examination.

2. The student can enter multiple discrepancies for given course code

3. The pathway for entering discrepancy is UMS Navigation --> Examination System --> Fill Exam Discrepancy

The steps for entering online question paper discrepancy in UMS interface are as follows

Step I: The interface shows the list of exams held in last 72 hours. The student can go to 'Fill Discrepancy' to report discrepancy. Here, student can see the course code, course name, type, date of exam, and time of exam.

Step II: The student can report discrepancy by clicking on 'Fill Discrepancy' as shown below. Student can click on 'Fill Discrepancy' to report discrepancy in that particular exam.

Step III: After clicking on 'Fill Discrepancy', a new window opens where student should enter the details regarding particular discrepancy. The steps are explained below. Drop Down for type of discrepancy

Step IV: From the dropdown, select Unit/Section in which discrepancy is being reported.

Step V: Enter the question number. Drop Down appropriate Unit in which discrepancy question is present Write question number.

Step VI: Write discrepancy details in description box. Step VII: Add supporting documents if applicable. Enter description of discrepancy Supporting documents may be added here.

Step VIII: Click on 'Add Discrepancy'. The student discrepancy is added and can be see.

Step IX: The student can see all discrepancies reported by them in bottom box as shown below. Click on 'Add Discrepancy' Student can view his reported discrepancy here.

Step X: Once the discrepancy is added, the student can update the discrepancy as well. Click here to update discrepancy if any changes are required after discrepancy is entered.